

Have you read the minor prophets???

We know the story of Jonah very well, but... what about Nahum? The Assyrian capital, Nineveh, is also the setting for Nahum's prophecy, but here the focus is not on God's mercy, but on his judgement. It's a final warning for the enemies of God's people, but also an encouragement for God's people suffering at the hands of fierce adversaries. There is hope for change! It's a message that is still relevant today, with society at large becoming ever more anti-Christian!

Please pray for the translation of these books into Toba. We hope the Argentine Bible Society will be able to print them as separate booklets next year.

נחום Nahum

Who will carry on the work?

Pastor José Molina (left) died recently, but he did live to see the fulfilment of his dream of having God's Word in his heart language. The five Toba churches within the Anglican Church all have young leaders, who need solid Bible-based training as well as wisdom and courage to stand firm against the enemy.

Please pray for the development of training courses for the Tobas, in Toba, to equip young leaders for present and future challenges, and to enable them to reach out with the Gospel message, within their communities and beyond.

30th October in Rinconada

On Saturday 29th October the Toba churches will meet for two days of celebrations in Rinconada, remembering the 81st anniversary of the founding of the first Toba church (30th October 1930), and also the 100th anniversary of the Diocese of Northern Argentina.

As we remember heroes from the past, may we be inspired to follow their example and impact the world around us!

Presidential elections in Argentina

On Sunday 23rd October a new President will be elected in Argentina, and it's likely to be a new four year term for Cristina Kirchner (below). Please pray for the new government to be formed, for justice and peace for the Argentine people.

Beyond 1012

Pray for Michael as he begins to prepare a project proposal for ongoing work with the Tobas and possibly their neighbours, the Pilagá Indians (right).

There's no more Marmite!

All the supplies of Marmite we brought back with us in February, plus a large pot brought by a friend in August, have been used up. What can we do now? Christopher had a good idea: "Now we'll have to go to England and buy some more!!"

*Many thanks for all your support in prayer! God bless you!
With love in Jesus!
Michael, Silvia, Kevin and Christopher*
