

Inside Out

Aspiring to be a praying, serving, affirming, listening, partnering and transforming mission agency.

Inside Out

Foreword

“Christian mission is about being inside out and upside down! It is about change and transformation. It turns individuals and communities inside out. It is about people in every nation discovering and living by the upside down values and priorities of God’s Kingdom.” Bishop Ken Clarke (Chairman SAMS Ireland)

Introduction

SAMS Ireland is committed to working in partnership with churches in Ireland, Iberia and South America. The history of SAMS can be traced back to the mid 19th century. In the 21st century we passionately believe that the message in mission remains relevant even if a secular and pluralist worldview has become more prominent. We are enthused and thankful for the emerging opportunities and possibilities.

Aim

Resource churches and communities.

Objectives

- Establish new working models in mission.
- Facilitate training opportunities.
- Support projects through partnership.

God calls and sends us into our communities to participate in His mission. It demands identification without loss of identity: mission goes beyond our comfort zones and enters other people's stories, as Christ entered ours.

SAMS seeks to resource churches and communities through the baseline, fusion and btn programmes.

Inside Out

baseline resourcing the local church

Baseline resources local churches as they plan formal and informal gatherings. One of the SAMS team can visit your church or discuss by telephone or email how we can best serve you.

Resourcing the local church through:

- Children's talks
- Confirmation workshops
- Interactive seminars
- Lent reflections
- Mission focus talks
- Multi-media presentations
- Youth work evaluation
- Sermons
- Skills assessment programme

Mission is a journey of discovery which can take unexpected twists and turns. We need to abandon any notions of power and embrace an attitude of service.

affirming

Fusion offers placements to people from Iberia and South America within a church setting in Ireland. Fusion also seeks to link local churches in Ireland with short, medium or long-term projects overseas.

Participants from Argentina, Chile, Paraguay and Uruguay have already made considerable contributions throughout Ireland. Prior to a placement one of the SAMS team will visit your church and work through an informal job description and discuss the relevant details. SAMS will support you fully before, during and after the placement.

Churches can link with mission partners or projects, creating connections, facilitating change and enabling learning opportunities for everyone involved.

The challenge is not to see what lies vaguely at a distance, but to do what lies clearly at hand.

Inside Out

beyond the norm

BTN enables individuals and churches in Ireland to visit and participate within a church community in South America.

Aims and Objectives

- Affirm the work of the church in South America.
- Enable people from Ireland to participate in a church community in South America.
- Wrestle with issues such as mission, cultural diversity and the impact of globalisation.
- Create new experiences, new opportunities and new friendships.
- Develop effective working relationships between the churches here in Ireland and South America.

When volunteers return the SAMS forum creates the space to meet and share experiences. It's an opportunity to pray together, a time to evaluate the past and plan for the future.

Conclusion

Mission isn't an exclusive calling for the few. It's for everyone! Mission is at the heart of Christian discipleship. It involves and demands all of us as we are called to love the Lord our God with all our heart, soul, mind and strength.

SAMS values and prioritises the relational aspect within mission and recognises that well produced strategies and contemporary resources are irrelevant if they are not underpinned by a conscious commitment and respect for all people.

Together let us understand the present without being burdened by the past and may God grant us His wisdom as we accept future challenges.

Inside Out

SAMS Prayer

Dear God,

We acknowledge that mission is meaningless without your blessing.

May the boldness of your Spirit continually transform SAMS as a mission agency.

May the gentleness of your Spirit lead our mission partners in all they do and say.

May the gifts of your Spirit equip us all to serve the wider community.

We worship you, now and always, through Jesus Christ, the Lord of all.

Amen

We are all called to live our lives from an 'Inside Out' perspective. Mission is a journey of transformation which spills out into our local communities and then the wider world.
